

Ydraw Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to us. Ydraw respects your privacy and is committed to treating your personal information with the utmost care. We will never share information gathered through the Ydraw website (the "Site") with any third party nor use that information outside of the context of this Site without your permission.

Although Ydraw respects the privacy of all those who visit the Site and use our online services, we do collect information from our members and visitors. By submitting personal information through the Site, you agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy and you expressly consent to the processing of your personal information according to this Privacy Policy.

Partner sites

While we encourage all third parties to adhere to our policies regarding the privacy of our visitors and members and to otherwise handle personal information in a responsible manner, we cannot and do not assume any responsibility for any actions or omissions of third parties, including the manner in which they use information received either from Ydraw or independently. In the event you encounter any third party associated with, or who claims to be associated with, Ydraw that you feel is improperly collecting or using information about you, please contact us and we will be happy to forward your message to the third party in question and take appropriate action.

Tracking and private logging

We do not monitor the domain name or IP address of those who visit the Site, except in aggregate totals so that we know how many people are visiting.

Other sites

When a link is provided to any other website or location, it is done for your convenience and does not signify our endorsement of such other website or its contents. We have no control over, do not review and cannot be responsible for these outside websites or their content. Please be aware that the terms of our Privacy Policy do not apply to these outside websites.

Security

Ydraw is committed to protecting the security of your personal information. We use a variety of industry-standard security technologies and procedures to help protect your personal information from unauthorized access, use or disclosure.

Ydraw has implemented industry-standard electronic means of protecting your personal information. We store personal information behind a computer firewall, a barrier designed to prevent outsiders from accessing our servers, and we have implemented technology to detect intrusions. Ydraw limits access to personal information in electronic databases to those persons (including employees and contractors) in Ydraw's organization who have a business need for such access.

It is possible that the computers at Ydraw could become compromised by outsiders and that information could be collected and disseminated without our knowledge or consent. We are not responsible or liable for any such unauthorized uses of our records or data.

Even though Ydraw has taken significant steps to ensure that your personal information is not intercepted, accessed, used or disclosed by unauthorized persons, you should know that Ydraw cannot fully eliminate security risks associated with personal information.

Data release policy

Our policy is to release the data we collect in the following circumstances:

1. As required by law, such as in response to a valid request from law enforcement.
2. To designated third parties to resolve or investigate abuse complaints.
3. When the information is related to spiders or bots, usually when investigating technical issues.
4. For abusive users, we may release information to assist in attempting to block the abusive user or to file a complaint with that user's Internet Service Provider.
5. If necessary, to defend legal claims against us by third parties.
6. When we deem it necessary to protect the property or rights of the user community, or this website.

No selling of information

We will not sell information collected via this Site, such as your email address, to third parties. Contact us Should you have any questions or concerns regarding this Privacy Policy, please contact us through the Contact US page or write to:
